Week 5 - "Paradise Lost"

Genesis 3:25-4:24

Chapter 3 teaches us some fundamental truths about sin, its consequences, and most importantly, its remedy.

Sin	God's authority. (3:1-6)
a.	Satan begins by questioning God'sassumption that God's Word is subject to
b.	Three observations about Eve's response to the serpent:
	i. She minimizes the	·
	ii. She the prohibition.
	iii. She the penalty.
C.	Satan attacks God's and
d.	This was the most terrible lie ever conceived but it came to package of the fruit she could decide for	the idea that by eating that she could live according to	wisdom, that she

9	Sin	God's design. (2:25, 3:7-13)  The hierarchy of authority established in chapters 1 and 2 (God, Adam, Eve, creation including the serpent) is turned completely on its head in chapter 3: Eve is listening to, Adam is listening to,
ć	а.
		and nobody is listening to  Other reversals of God's design:
b.	b.
		i.	Perfect security is replaced with	(v. 7)
		ii.	Perfect love is replaced with	(vv. 8, 9)
		iii.	Perfect unity is replaced with	(vv. 11-13)
		God's judgement. (3:14-19, 22-24)
·	а.	God s j	udgement on the serpent:
ł	b.	God's j	udgement on Eve (and her descendants):
Ó	с.	God's j	udgement on Adam (and his descendants):
			augement on riadin (und mo descendants).

www.aprilesweers.com Page 2